

Tivoli Tattler

1st April 2020

Volume 1, Issue 1

The Tivoli Club Of W.A. Inc.

The Tivoli Theatre might be closed for business but that doesn't mean that we stop doing the things we enjoy, nor being a part of the great Tivoli Family.

Birthdays and Anniversaries

Just because we won't be together to celebrate your special days doesn't mean we will forget you owe us a cake.

- ◆ Derek Mott
- ◆ Janette Lowry
- ◆ David Pankhurst
- ◆ Jim Clayton

Happy Birthday

Everyone

Welcome to The Tivoli Tattler

What a time we live in!

In 1999 we were frightened that our world would suffer from the Y2K bug and we would lose all our computers, we survived and so did our computers. 20 years later we are concerned with Covid-19. Suddenly our lives are upended and we wonder what will come next. The answer I believe is greater creativity and sense of community. Just because we can't gather together doesn't mean we can't create.

It is with this in mind that 'The Tivoli Tattler' is being reintroduced as a way to stay connected as the Tivoli family. This is your Newsletter so if you have anything to share;

Creative People Need To Create

There has been a lot written about the risk that isolation has on our mental health. So while we are focusing on keeping physically healthy we must not overlook our mental health.

The most important thing to understand is that creative people must create. So please find something to do each day to express your creativity, whether it is to sing while you do the cooking or cleaning or dance behind the vacuum cleaner as you clean your floors, or do a piece of art work, doodling is allowed.

You can even post videos or photos of your creative times.

Looking forward to new tap and dance routines to try out while I clean.

either jokes, funny stories, words of wisdom, recipe's, birthdays or anniversaries then please send them through to the email address on the back of this newsletter.

Over the next few months we will feature a section on getting to know your committee and members. So you may be asked to write a short piece about yourself and your interests.

It is envisaged that this newsletter is published fortnightly during this time of isolation, so that none of us feels too alone.

So get those creative thinking caps on and in the spare time you might now have, start emailing me with your pieces. I encourage our TYP cast to get involved as well.

Stay safe family and we look forward to hearing from you all, and seeing you on the other side of this rather unique time.

I will leave you with some words from Albert Einstein: 'Creativity is contagious, pass it on'. If he were alive today he would probably have added; this is the only thing you can pass on.

Jean

Recipe - Barbara's Cheese and Potato Pancakes

Ingredients

80g Swiss Cheese (I usually use pre-grated tasty cheese)
250g Potatoes, peeled (can leave skin on) and quartered
1 small onion halved
¼ cup parsley (can use whatever herb you like)
1 Egg
½ cup plain flour
1 teaspoon salt (or other seasoning of your choice)
¼ pepper (or other seasoning of your choice)
¼ cup oil

Method

Using Shredding Disc of food processor (or grater)

Place cheese (if not pre-grated) in tube and process, same with potatoes, onion and parsley.

Set mixture aside in a bowl.

Using Chopping Blade (or bowl and wooden spoon)

Mix together egg, flour and seasonings
Combine 2 mixtures

Heat oil in fry pan to a moderate temperature
180°C.

Drop the batter by tablespoon into the hot oil.
Fry, turning once approximately 3 minutes on each side, or until golden brown.
Drain on absorbent paper and serve.

Sandy Sharpen

Well if I'm honest about myself I'm a bit of a dreamer. I spent my school days looking out of the window dreaming I was somewhere else. Every school report I have says "Sandra is quiet needs to speak up" I was incredibly shy and believe it or not I still am.

I learnt calisthenics (not something I love) piano and played netball, did some jazz ballet & ballroom dancing and beach swimming lots of it. Netball was my passion and played till I was well into my 40's.

I've always loved music of all styles, classical, swing, pop and I've always loved theatre, especially musical theatre and movies. I think I was born in the wrong era I love 50's big bands and the fashion of the 40's, 50's I think they were so stylish.

I've travelled extensively including travelling to the Eastern Block countries before the Iron Curtin was removed, an interesting experience.

I became involved in Tivoli because my daughter auditioned as a singer. It took some convincing to get me on stage but I have been there every since around 18 years now.

What I love about Tivoli is that it is one of few places where everybody does something for nothing other than for the love of what they are doing and for the camaraderie and the joy they bring others, I think it is a rare thing to find in these busy time.

You'll often find me lost in a book, it's my escape into another world. Mostly I am happiest when I am spending time with my family, especially my 4 grandchildren. Family and friends mean everything to me and time spent with them is precious.